

Saturday, November 27, 2010
At the Mesa Fire Station from 7pm to 9pm
www.meetup.com/phoenix-ufo-group

TALES OF LONG AGO “ The Great UFO Picture Show”
Presenting 20 of the best photographs and videos of UFOs from Jim’s investigations.

How to use computers in UFO investigations. History of image analysis techniques. How to test pictures and video. How to use the Internet to conduct UFO research. The top 100 UFO Internet sites will be illustrated. How to cross-correlate data between different Internet sites. Advanced use of Search Engines. How to conduct background checks on witnesses and investigators. Plus- filtering information on the Internet where Truth and Fiction and Slander are intertwined. A little bit history, a little bit visionary, and a little bit twisted. Instant-information and visual-gratification junkies welcome.

A real treat in history and info-tainment.

What Its all Gonna Be Like Someday;
When will disclosure about UFOs happen. Will there really be a big disaster in 2012. Are there really aliens, angels, and ghosts at the same time? Who’s who in the war against America. Will the aliens ever attack? Can we really have peace in the neighborhood? Who is Santa Claus really?

Bio:

Jim Dilettoso is one of the best known figures in UFO Research. For over 30 years he has been recognized as one of the leading analysts of UFO Pictures and Video. He has appeared on many TV Broadcasts, including Sightings, Discovery, A&E, UFO Hunters, MTV, CNN. He is known in the UFO community as an innovative researcher and effective communicator. Never without controversy, his work on the Billy Meier case, the Phoenix Lights, and Mexico City UFOs have helped raise the visibility of UFOs into the mainstream. In his other life, at Village Labs, Jim works in Image Processing, Architecture, Agriculture, and Sonochemistry. He has worked with Marcel Vogel, Wendelle Stevens, NASA-NIAC, Michael Bozarth, ASU, FEMA and the Moody Blues.
contact toso@cox.net

Join us for an exciting and informative evening...
Including a special surprise with Jim interviewing a special guest.